

Handwritten German text, likely a legal document or contract, written in a cursive script. The text is densely packed and covers most of the page. It appears to be a formal agreement or a record of a transaction, possibly related to land or property, given the context of the words like 'Land', 'Hof', 'Gut', and 'Kauf'. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper. A small wooden peg or stick is visible at the bottom center, used to hold the paper together. There are some stains and discolorations on the paper, particularly on the right side. The text ends with a signature and the date '1581'.
